Cleveland Personal Injury Attorney Ryan Fisher Named to 2013 Ohio Super Lawyers List

CLEVELAND, Ohio – January 24, 2013 – Ryan Fisher, a Cleveland personal injury attorney at Lowe Eklund Wakefield & Mulvihill Co., LPA, was recently named to the 2013 Ohio Super Lawyers list. For the third consecutive year, Fisher was selected for his long history of professional achievement in plaintiff personal injury litigation and his continued dedication to protecting the rights of clients.

Each year, Super Lawyers selects attorneys on a state-by-state basis using a precise, multiphase rating process that includes peer nominations/evaluations and third party research. Candidates are assessed using 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional performance. Because Super Lawyers is designed to help individuals select a qualified lawyer, the publication limits the lawyer ratings to only those who can be hired and retained by the public.

“For over 35 years, our firm has been characterized by integrity, accountability and the highest standards of practice,” said Fisher, a partner at the firm. “It’s very satisfying to have other top attorneys recognize our firm’s commitment to advocating on behalf of our clients. I am very grateful to be honored along with other members of my firm as one of Ohio’s leading personal injury attorneys.”

Fisher has been a trial attorney for 23 years, limiting his practice to plaintiff personal injury litigation. He has tried cases throughout Ohio in both state and federal courts, and has successfully argued before the Ohio Supreme Court. Fisher has obtained millions of dollars in compensation for victims injured or killed in automobile, truck and motorcycle accidents, as well as in medical negligence, product liability and premises liability cases. He has also received the highest rating from his peers for ethics and ability (AV rating), and is an active member of the American Association for Justice, Ohio Association for Justice, Cleveland Academy of Trial Attorneys and the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association.
